WALKING WITH GOD

Dear Community of SS. Peter & Paul,

Soon the holy season of Lent will be upon us. ASH WEDNESDAY IS FEBRUARY 22. LITURGIES THAT DAY WILL BE AT 8:00 AM, 12:00 NOON, AND 5:15 PM.

I have offered a particular spiritual practice in the past known as The Bona Opera, or "Good Works" for Lent. There will be a Bona Opera form in next weeks bulletin. If you wish, you can use this as part of your Lenten asceticism. It simply means you mark down your Lenten intentions, that is, what you are hopefully adding or omitting to your usual prayer observances. The form may be folded, placed in an envelop and placed in a basket when you come

Church in Central and Eastern Europe

Next week we will take up the collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports Catholic organizations that provide food, shelter, medical care, catechesis, and companionship for the lonely in a region still struggling in the aftermath of atheistic Soviet rule. Your donations help to restore the strength of the Church in the region. Please give generously to the collection next weekend. Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections to learn more.

Christ is the light which illumines the way.

IN OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

Pray for the Sick

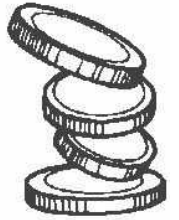

Please remember the following whose lives are overwhelmed by physical, mental or spiritual suffering:

Mardi Gras Pennies

Once again we are collecting your spare change: pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters, for our FUN fundraiser. A container can be found following weekend liturgies where grocery certificates are available. Thank you for your support!

forward to receive the Blessed Ashes on Ash Wednesday. Extra forms will be available at the doors of the chapel and the cathedral. These Bona Opera forms will be kept in an appropriate container near the altar for the duration of Lent. Please see the form in next weeks bulletin.

Lent is also a good time to do some focused spiritual reading. Selecting a book of the Bible is often helpful. For example, selecting one of the Gospels and reading it through the season of Lent offers a wonderful overview of the life of Christ. Perhaps making an effort to read the weekly Scriptural commentary in THE CRITERION, or dedicating some time each day to reading the Lectionary readings from the liturgy would both be beneficial.

In next week's bulletin, you will find that list of times for Lenten liturgies and devotions like the Way of the Cross.

Sometimes omitting things is as helpful as adding things. Omitting gossip, bad language, or other bad habits is helpful. Omitting an hour of mind numbing television watching in favor of doing some helpful reading could add a lot to your spiritual development.

Lent might be a time to check out programs at Fatima, Our Lady of Grace or Saint Meinrad.

I want to thank you for your kindness and prayers offered for my Aunt, Mary Casey Leen, who died last week in County Kerry, Ireland. Father Pat Beidelman and I made a quick trip to Ireland for her funeral which was very beautiful. Your prayers meant a lot to us and to her two daughters and their families.

Please pray for Bishop Coyne as he is in Rome for the ad limina visit required of each bishop every five years. A massive report on the state of the archdiocese was submitted to the Holy See in December and reviewed. Each bishop accompanies

Thoughts for your Daily Prayer

Pope Benedict XVI's February Intentions

Access to Water: That all peoples may have access to water and other resources needed for daily life.

Health Workers: That the Lord may sustain the efforts of health workers assisting the sick and elderly in the world's poorest regions.

Catholic Business Exchange

Wally Brant, president and CEO of Indiana Oxygen Company, will address the February Catholic Business Exchange. His topic will be: God is listening, even when you're not.

The event is Friday morning, February 17, at the North Side Knights of Columbus. Mass starts at 6:30 am and the program will be finished by 8:30 am. Cost for the program includes a great breakfast and is $14 in advance for members and $20 for non-members. Registration is required. To register, pay online and for more information, visit www.catholicbusinessexchange.com.

the other bishops of the region to meet with the various Vatican offices, and to have a session with the Holy Father. Bishop Coyne hopes to share more of this report with us in the near future. Keep an eye on THE CRITERION. We are very grateful to Bishop Coyne for presiding at various Sunday liturgies at the Cathedral. He enjoys being with us. Beginning in later February, however, the usual busy schedule of Rites of Election and Confirmations will begin, and the Bishop will be quite busy with those celebrations.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,
Father Noah
